PETITION FOR REVIVAL OF AN APPLICATION
FOR PATENT ABANDONED UNINTENTIONALLY UNDER 37 CFR 1.137(b)

Dear Sir,

I refer to the subject application. I received the Notice of Abandonment with a mailing date of 20 July 2007 only in mid August. I then checked my file but there was no record of any correspondence from your office after I have filed our reply to your office action of 20 July 2006. I then made a phone call to your office and found that a final office action with a mailing date of 11 January 2007 has been issued. The officer asked me to check the final office action from the USPTO website and I did the same to retrieve the office action. I took some time to review the office action and to find out how to revive the application. I attempted to call the case examiner to clarify some doubts that I had on the final office action but I could not reach the case examiner. I even tried to send email (see attached) to the case examiner in October 2007 but I received no reply. With a view not to further delay the subject application, I hereby file a form PTO/SB/64 to petition for revival of the subject application. My reply to the final office action is also enclosed. I hereby also request for continued examination (RCE) under 37 CFR 1.114 of the subject application and a form PTO/SB/30 is enclosed. A credit card payment fee form PTO-2038 is also enclosed to authorize your office to charge US$ 770 for the revival petition fee and US$ 405 for the RCE fee.

Please kindly grant the petition and proceed to further examine the subject application.

Inquiry on Serial No 10/797,420

China HK 寄給 timothy.simone, bcc: kchow, bcc: jip | 顯示詳細資料 2007/10/12 | 回覆 |

Dear Timothy,

I refer to the US patent application No. 10/797,420 and the final office action of the application issued on January 11, 2007. As my representative and I have never received the final office action before, only when I recently received the Notice of Abandonment dated July 20, 2007, I learnt that the application was abandoned as I failed to reply the final office action. Therefore, I would like to file a petition for revival of an application for patent abandoned unintentionally under 37 CFR 1.137(b) together with the reply to the final office action.

As I am preparing the reply to the final office action, I understand that Claims 1 – 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112 for they are not complying with the written format and indefinite. Only Claim 1 is rejected in view of the prior art documents. Therefore, I wonder if I (1) revise Claims 1 – 10 to fulfill the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 112 and (2) to narrow the scope of Claim 1 by incorporating Claim 4 into Claim 1, would the subject application be allowed for grant? Or will it raise new issues? I understand that if the reply to the final office action is rejected, the subject application will be permanently abandoned. Therefore, I hope that the reply which I am going to file can put the application in order for allowance.

I also understand that I can file a request for continued examination or an appeal instead of filing a reply to the final office action. However, they are very expensive. Therefore, I hope that I can have your kind opinions and avoid incurring the additional fees.

Look forward to hearing from you.

Kind Regards,

Ping

Inventor of the application
